REQUEST FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

For Videographer & Short Film Editor

Kwanlin Dün First Nation (KDFN) seeks Expressions of Interest of experienced videographers to record less than 30 hours of on-camera interviews and storytelling by Kwanlin Dün First Nation members. Clips, or full recordings, resulting from these interviews will be used in a variety of media as part of the multi-year Kwanlin Dün Waterfront Heritage Project. A series of approximately four promotional and communicative films ranging from five to 15 minutes is required at key intervals of the project.

Term

- October 2017 – March 2018 with a possible extension.

Summary of Services

- The professional services will include both indoor and outdoor filming (in all seasons); quick set-up times to accommodate Elder comfort; general interview set up; lighting; sound; HD video recording; editing; and production of final video files exclusively. As well as delivery of master copies and universally viewed formats such as QuickTime, VLC, or other. Coordination, scheduling and interviewing services are not required.

Requirements

- The videographer(s) must demonstrate successful completion of video product similar in scope. Submissions should be no more than 10 pages (8.5" x 11") in length, accompanied by samples of recent works in a universal format such as QuickTime; and/or print format and current resumes for all team members. KDFN may require a Request for Proposal general intake; or a Request for Proposal by special invitation after the Expressions of Interest process is complete.

Deadline for Applications

- Expressions of Interest should be submitted on or before September 18, 2017 4:30 p.m., to:
