

KWANLIN DÜN FIRST NATION

An Act To Amend The Election Act

Kwanlin Dün First Nation
AN ACT TO AMEND THE ELECTION ACT

Summary

This enactment amends the Election Act (Kwanlin Dün First Nation), May 2013 (the “Election Act”), based on the recommendations by the Kwanlin Dün First Nation election committee and informed by the Kwanlin Dün First Nation election held in March 2014.

The amendments to the Election Act are intended to disallow immediate family members of candidates from serving as election officials to avoid the potential for conflicts of interests; clarify what information is required as part of filing one’s nomination papers; authorize the chief returning officer with the discretion to hire a deputy returning officer if required to minimize the costs of operating an election process; and avoid unnecessary handling of the ballots to ensure accuracy in results.

The Council of the Kwanlin Dün First Nation hereby enacts as follows:

Short title

- 1. This Act may be cited as the Act to Amend the Election Act.
- 2. The definitions of “beneficiary”, “chief”, “citizen” and “Council” are hereby repealed.
- 3. The definition of “immediate family member” is replaced and defined as the same meaning as assigned to it by paragraph 67(1)(r) of the Constitution and includes siblings for the purposes of this Act;
- 4. The definitions of “Judicial Council”, “Kwanlin Dün First Nation” and “registrar of citizenship” are hereby repealed.
- 5. Section 2 of the Election Act is amended by including a subsection (2) that states the following:

(2) In addition to subsection (1), the definitions of the constitution shall also apply to this Act.
- 6. The Election Act is amended by adding a subsection 12(e) that states the following:

(e) not be an immediate family member of a candidate for the office of either chief or councillor.
- 7. The Election Act is amended by repealing and replacing subsection 13(5) with the following:

(5) Within 30 days after the results of the elections are declared, the election committee shall provide a written report to the Council or its delegate, including the report delivered by the chief returning officer, setting out the results of the election, the details of carrying out the election process under its direction and supervision, and any recommendations for future elections.

8. The Election Act is amended by adding a subsection 15(f) that states the following:

(f) not be an immediate family member of a candidate for the office of either chief or councillor.
