

January 5, 2017

Parks Canada fees in Yukon, in 2017

2017 marks the 150th anniversary of Canadian Confederation. Parks Canada is celebrating Canada 150 by providing free Discovery Passes to the public, so they can enjoy unlimited day admission where entry fees are normally charged. Canadians can order their free 2017 Discovery Passes online. Please visit the Parks Canada web site at www.pc.gc.ca for more information.

All national parks and national historic sites operated by Parks Canada in Yukon already have free day admission. These sites include:

- Kluane National Park and Reserve
- Vuntut National Park
- Ivvavik National Park
- S.S. Klondike National Historic Site
- Klondike National Historic Sites (Dawson)

The Chilkoot Trail National Historic Site in northern British Columbia, regularly charges a $9.80 fee for day use / day running the trail. The 2017 Discovery Pass will cover this day use fee.

Regular fees remain in effect for other experiences and services, not limited to:

Kluane National Park and Reserve	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Guided Interpretive Walks • Camping at Kathleen Lake Campground • Firewood • Backcountry Camping • Aircraft Access Permits • Fishing Licences
Vuntut National Park	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Backcountry Camping
Ivvavik National Park	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Backcountry Camping • Aircraft Access Permits • Fishing Licences
Chilkoot Trail NHS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Backcountry Camping • Reservation Fees
S.S. Klondike NHS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Self-guided Brochures • 3rd Party Guided Tours
Klondike NHS (Dawson)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Guided Interpretive Programs • Dawson City Escape! Room • 3rd Party Guided Tours of Dredge No. 4