Schedule 1 – Interpretive rules

Schedule 2 – Land Use Plans

The Council of the Kwanlin Dün First Nation hereby enacts as follows:

Preamble

A. The 2010 referendum authorized the Kwanlin Dün government to enact a Kwanlin Dün First Nations Lands Act to allow for the management of settlement land, including the use of interests in that land, and to provide for the proper care of settlement land for future generations. We acknowledge that this is our inherent right in governing our business as aboriginal people.

B. Together we are determined to maintain and preserve our relationship with the land, resources, and living things on the land in the Traditional Territory of the Kwanlin Dün First Nation, now and into the future. We are committed to managing the land in a respectful and sustainable way, allowing for the protection of Kwanlin Dün First Nation culture, traditions, values and way of life.

C. We will continue to respect the land and water, and all that is on the land and in the water.

D. While this law applies to all persons who use, access, possess or occupy settlement land, the Kwanlin Dün First Nation must implement and administer this Act in a manner that acknowledges and protects specific rights and interests of the beneficiaries as set out in the final agreement, while providing opportunities for our people to be out on the land to enjoy their traditional and cultural pursuits and finding our rightful place in the economy.

E. This Act is dedicated to all our Kwanlin Dün elders and all those individuals who worked tirelessly for our aboriginal rights and dedicated their lives to negotiating our final agreement and for their vision in the settlement land that we are working with today and will continue to enjoy and prosper from, for generations to come.

(2) An offer of compensation made to a person under this section in respect of an expropriated interest or right shall be based on a written appraisal of the value of that interest or right, and a copy of the appraisal shall be sent to that person at the time of the making of the offer.
